Judge Belford Gives his Ideas on the Indian Problem.

Grant's Friends to be Provided with Foreign Appointments.

Motion to Quash Star Route Indictments Denied.

BELFORD'S INDIAN IDEA.

CINCINNATI, April 10.—The Gazette's Washington special says: Judge Belford, of Colorado, wants to open up the Ute reservation in his state for settlement, he has some vigorous western ideas on the question. According to Mr Belford, the Indian has a very good time. He says the trouble is whenever an Indian matter comes up the house lose their heads. They overlook the fact that we have in this country two hundred and fifty thousand Indians who occupy two hundred and forty-six thousand square miles of territory, an area equal to England and Ireland, equal to the republic of France, almost as large as the German empire, and of this vast domain the Indians have not cultivated over five hundred thousand acres of it. We allow white men to take one hundred and sixty acres of land on conditions that lead to its cultivation sooner or later, but when we deal with Indians we make no such conditions, but give him a square mile where we give the white man an acre. In my judgment this country was made for men who are willing to cultivate it and make its products contribute to the welfare of mankind. The white man can so utilize one acre as to promote the happiness and comfort of a hundred people. The Indian requires from six hundred to one thousand acres, where he may ride in search of game. The problem required to be solved is: "Shall this land be devoted to the comfort and maintenance of the men who are willing to cultivate, or be given to a set of savages who will neither adopt our methods, nor accept our civilization?" Looking at all phases of the question, there are but two things for Indians to do, work or starve. No man has a right to the land who is not willing to cultivate it. We appropriate now $5,000,000 to support able-bodied Indian paupers. If congress were asked to support the same number of white men, there would be a howl. What is the difference between the Indian and the white man? That is the only question I have to propound at present.

GRANT'S FRIENDS.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Tribune's Washington special states: "It is rumored the foreign post for which Judge Taft's name is under consideration, is that of minister to England, in place of Lowell. A well-informed Ohio republican says Taft will reach Washington Tuesday, and it is supposed he comes for consultation on the matter. General Beale is talked of for his old place, as minister to Austria. Adam Badeau, Grant's biographer, is to have a good place, it is understood, somewhere in the foreign service.

JEWISH PERSECUTION.

WASHINGTON, April 10. Some time ago, a resolution was introduced into the house by Judge Belford, asking the president to request the czar to interfere for the protection of his Jewish subjects, from the persecution of Russian mobs. Mr. Belford is in daily receipt of letters from Jewish citizens of the United States, asking why nothing has yet been done. Reference to this resolution having been made and inquiry instituted, it has been learned that the state department some time ago, forwarded instruction to the Jewish consuls in Russia, asking them to report whether there was any truth in the stories of the outrages perpetrated on the Jews. The foreign affairs committee is waiting to receive the information before acting on Belford's resolution.

COMPULSORY RETIREMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 10. General Sherman's dispatch asking that no exception be made in his favor to the compulsory retirement clause of the army bill serves to make the passage of the clause a certainty although an attempt will be made to strike out compulsory retirement after forty years' service, which as it happened only strikes General Pope. He is the only officer under 62 years who has served continuously for forty years, having graduated from West Point before he was 20 years of age.

FRANK HATTON'S LETTER.

WASHINGTON, April 9. The following is Frank Hatton's letter to the Cincinnati postmaster, alluded to in a previous dispatch:

The inquiry in regard to whether the executive orders of pages 331 and 332 and regulation 78 include employes of postoffices, is answered in the negative, unless employment interferes with the efficient discharge of their duties in a postoffice. In regard to the prevision relative to participation in political campaigns, so far as they are applicable to postmasters and other employes of the department, I desire to say, the fact that a citizen is deemed worthy and competent to fill a public station should not, in my opinion, deprive him of any of his rights as a citizen, so long as he does not neglect the duties entrusted to him. I believe the right of every man to use his best efforts to promote, by all proper means, the success of all public and political measures that will, in his judgment, be beneficial to his country. Earnestness in the discharge of their duties as citizens should not involve offensiveness on the part of public servants. On this subject, let me quote from the letter of General Arthur in accepting the nomination tendered him by the republican convention at Chicago. His language is peculiarly applicable to the inquiry you make. He says: "I will add that by the acceptance of a public office, whether high or low, one does not, in my judgment, escape any of the responsibilities as a citizen, or lose or impair any of his rights as a citizen, and that he should enjoy absolute liberty to think and speak and act in political matters according to his own will and conscience, provided only that he honorably, faithfully and fully discharge all his official duties." Within the limit indicated a public officer is a free man socially and politically with a man's duties and responsibilities to answer for.

Very respectfully, FRANK HATTON,
First Assistant Postmaster-General

MACKEY'S CASE.

The report of the house committee show that charges of fraud and ballot box stuffing in South Carolina are doubtless true. It shows that the republican majority of 5,000 for Mackey was thrown out and a democrat seated. In some places the ballot boxes contained more democratic tickets than the whole number of voters. These facts justify Brewster's letter.

MELVILLE'S SEARCH.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Secretary Hunt received a dispatch from Engineer Melville dated Yakutsk, January 27, as follows: "I have completed all necessary arrangements for supplies and outfits for six months and leave this place for Belun to-day; thence to Lena delta, to continue the search for missing comrades."

It is understood the secretary of war recommends a sentence of four or five months in the guard house for Mason, with forfeiture of pay and dishonorable discharge.

Judge Wylie's decision in the criminal court refusing motion of defendants in the Star route cases to quash indictments, is regarded here as the last motion defendants can interpose against trial in criminal court.

TELLER'S SUCCESSOR.

The Chances as They Appeared to the Knowing Ones.

Special to the Gazette.

DENVER, April 10. The formal resignation of Teller was received by the afternoon mail. The governor has not yet made an appointment. Among the best informed to-night the chances are regarded about equal between Bowen and Routt, with possibly the balance turning slightly in favor of the latter. Telegrams from different points of the state still pour in on the governor.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

A Leadville Lodging House Burned with One of Its Inmates.

DENVER, April 10.—The Times' Leadville special says: On Monday morning at three o'clock a disastrous fire occurred at the corner of Elm and Spruce streets. The Bennett house, hotel and lodging house, which contained between forty and fifty people, mostly smelter men and foundry employes, took fire and was enveloped in flames so suddenly that the occupants had to jump out the windows, and nothing was saved. One of the unfortunate lodgers, Mike Muldegan, a boiler maker in Frank Gay's foundry, was burned. His remains lie at the undertaker's and present a shocking sight, being burnt to a crisp. An inquest will be held to-day and the funeral will take place to-morrow.

An incendiary fire at Chester, Pa., yesterday destroyed J. Howard Lewis' paper mill; loss $35,000, insurance $20,000.

ANOTHER CYCLONE.

Loss of Life and Property in Kansas.

ELDORADO, KAN., April 10.—A cyclone swept over Rosalie township in this county last night, at about 7:30, overturning three houses, killing Mrs. David Henry, breaking the thigh of Mrs. J. C. Paris, and fatally injuring three children. Houses were carried into the air, then dashed to splinters on the earth; not one whole board or shingle can be found of them. The storm was from the southwest and was preceded as usual by the meeting of two dark clouds. No extensive damage resulted to property, from the fact that after demolishing the houses it passed into the sparsely settled limestone hills. Posts of wire fence were twisted from the ground and carried away. A son of Mr. Paris, seventeen years old, was carried over some high trees adjacent to the homestead and set down on his feet. Mrs. Henry was not found for some three hours after the storm, and was then just dying.

Labor Ignored.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The amalgamation trades union has adopted resolutions declaring that as President Arthur has vetoed the bill intended to restrict the importation of Chinese coolies into the United States. Therefore the trades union regard it as another evidence from the governing classes that the interests of the working population were not considered and that President Arthur had ignored the interests of the people by protecting those of the six Chinese companies. They extend greetings to their brothers on the Pacific coast, bidding them to continue their work, and assuring them that victory will crown their efforts. The platform of principles calls for eight hours for a day's work, the compensation to be just and fair for the labor performed.

Another Robber Assassinated

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—It was reported to-night that Tucker Basham, who was convicted of participating in the Glendale train robbery and who was pardoned out to testify against Bill Ryan, was assassinated some ten days ago in Kansas. The James gang had sworn to take his life, and it is supposed they have accomplished the threat.

Mysterious Charles Francis.

BOSTON, April 10.—Charles Francis Adams will not give any additional information concerning the location of the house where he went with his young friend, nor what took place there. He has no remembrance of any cards and insists that he did not sign any check, though he says there were pieces of paper and money passing back and forth among the men.

A Gigantic Fraud.

BOSTON, April 10.—The Journal says: The outline of the operations of an extensive swindle in the China trade reached Boston this morning and indications are that a gigantic fraud is about to be exposed. The house of Vogel & Co of Hong Kong has done large business in hemp, silk and other goods between China and America and Europe. Very recently English and French consignees of the firm received several cargoes of cheap silk, fourth-rate silks in place of first class goods which had been ordered and paid for. Hardly had investigations begun when the arrival of the ship Richard Robinson in New York with a cargo from the same house exposed an extensive fraud of the same kind. Several New York and Boston firms received consignments of hemp, as they supposed, by the vessel. They had sent letters of credit and purchased through banking houses, as is customary in the trade, a large quantity of hemp worth nearly $30 a bale. On opening the cargo Saturday it was found to consist principally of Canton matter worth less than $5 00 a bale. Meantime steps to apprehend the head of the house at Hong Kong by means of cable orders to arrest him resulted in the receipt of a dispatch saying he had sailed in the last steamer, probably for France. Detectives in the latter country endeavored to find him at the time he was expected to arrive but he has been traced. It is believed, to Italy. His capture is well nigh despaired of although pursuit is being made as rapidly as possible. The silk shipped to Europe by Vogel & Co. is worth little more than $10 per bale. It was paid for at the rate of nearly 300 dollars. Loss to consignees thus far reported amounts to $500,000. One Boston firm received seventy-five hundred bales so-called hemp by the Richard Robinson and it was worth about one-sixth the amount paid. A thorough investigation of affairs is being made and a more definite statement will soon be ready.

Iowa Railroads.

OMAHA, April 10.—Commencing to-day the passenger trains of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road make their terminus at Omaha instead of Council Bluffs, crossing the Missouri river at Plattsmouth. Stub trains run to accommodate Council Bluffs from Pacific Junction. This step of the Kansas City road, it is believed, will be followed by all of the Iowa roads coming into Council Bluffs.

The Bella Mac Calamity.

LA CROSSE, April 10. Two men of the Bella Mac explosion victims died last night. They are Morris Lester, fireman, and David McCornish, clerk. An unidentified body was found floating several miles below the wreck, supposed to be one of McCornish's brothers. Four are still missing. Eight survivors will recover.

Was Jesse James Killed.

CHICAGO, April 10. The Times, which has a special correspondent in Missouri to investigate the particulars of the Jesse James shooting, publishes a letter this morning containing interviews with a number of Missourians who knew Jesse James, and all persist in the belief that it was not Jesse James who was killed.

Great Fire at Hamilton.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—A great fire is raging at Hamilton; three fire engines have been sent from here. A message just received by telephone says the fire started at 10:30 to-night, in the city buildings on High street, near the entrance to the bridge over the Miami. It has already consumed the city buildings, and several livery stables, and under a high wind has got beyond the control of the fire department. It is now, at 11:15 p. m., passing in the rear of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches, county jail and postoffice. The greatest consternation prevails among the citizens.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Last Business Meeting of the Old Board.

Alderman Noble Resigns and is Succeeded by E. F. Crowell.

Report of the Finance Committee Appointed at the Last Meeting.

The last meeting of the city council under the present regime was held in the council chamber in the opera house block last night. Mayor France occupied the chair, and the following aldermen were present: Messrs. Brown, Johnson, Giddings, Wilson, Wheeler, Himebaugh and Walker. City Clerk McGovney filled his accustomed place as did also City Attorney Campbell.

The first question brought up for the consideration of the council was the report of the finance committee—Aldermen Brown, Wilson and Himebaugh. This report was very full and complete and is published elsewhere in accordance with a motion passed that it be published. The following statement accompanied the report.

It may be well in explanation of the report, to say that the appropriations made and moneys expended by the present city council were provided for by the council for the year 1880 in its appropriation bill passed in the spring of that year. By law no moneys can be expended—except in certain cases of emergency—by the council not provided for in the annual appropriation bill, but the council of 1880 disregarded this provision in that it made expenditures of $1,512 27 beyond the extent of the prior appropriation, which indebtedness was inherited by the present council and had to be paid by it out of the funds appropriated for the fiscal year of 1881, although the indebtedness was for 1880 expenditures, thus depriving the out-going council of the said amount of $1,512 27 in making expenditures for the current year. The item in the above report as to the claim due from the town of Manitou of $350 has been provided for by the board of trustees of Manitou in its annual appropriation bill for the year 1882.

Alderman Walker called the attention of the council to the fact that the current expenditures of the present year were $1,000 less than those of last year.

Alderman Wilson said that out of justice to the city clerk he would state that every facility had been offered the finance committee, of which he was chairman, to examine the clerk's books. The accounts were found to be very correctly kept. The stubs of the water license book were thoroughly checked and everything was found to be absolutely correct.

On the motion of Alderman Walker the council extended a vote of thanks to the finance committee for the thorough manner in which they had performed their duty.

City Clerk McGovney submitted his report on the correct canvass of the election votes which was accepted and ordered placed on file.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the council Mr. James McCabe presented a claim for damages sustained by the overflow of the main ditch which was referred to a committee for settlement. Alderman Wilson, in behalf of the committee, stated that the city attorney and himself had visited personally the property on which the damage had been claimed and would report that the bill be referred back with the recommendation that it be not paid. He cited a clause in the Colorado Springs deeds which he thought would cover the question and which read as follows: "In further consideration the said party of the second part shall never present or prosecute any claims for damages done by any irrigation canal which passes through or may pass through the land described in the conveyance."

Alderman Walker thought it advisable not to be too hasty in the matter and recommended that the committee be not discharged but instructed to ascertain whether the break which caused the damage was on the land of Mr. McCabe or not. This recommendation was placed in the form of a resolution and prevailed.

Alderman Wheeler reported that President Tenney's application in reference to the water mains in the northern part of the city was in many respects impracticable and suggested several changes. This report, on motion of Alderman Wilson, was accepted and filed with the understanding that it be sent to Mr. Tenney and again presented at a subsequent meeting of the council.

In reference to the mesa road Mr. Wilson said that he was not prepared to make a full report and would request the postponement of the matter till the next meeting of the council. He also reported that part of the trees had been planted by the committee, of which he was a member, and that others would be received in a few days.

On motion of Alderman Himebaugh the council concluded to procure 500 trees more, the number ordered at the last meeting being considered insufficient to fill all vacancies.

Alderman Brown chairman of the committee appointed at the last meeting to adopt a feasible plan for the numbering of the streets of Colorado Springs reported that the committee had adopted the Philadelphia system. Pike's Peak avenue will be the dividing line and numbers will be given for every twenty-five feet. North of it the houses will be numbered from one up with the odd numbers on the east side and the even on the west side. South of Pike's Peak avenue the same system will be used. The two divisions will be distinguished by north and south. All streets running east and west will be numbered from one up beginning at Cascade avenue. This report was received and adopted.

A letter was read whereby Alderman Noble authorized Mr. A. Sutton to tender to the council his resignation as alderman of the third ward. The resignation was received and accepted; and nominations being in order the name of Mr. E. F. Crowell was placed before the council to fill the vacancy thus created without opposition. He was unanimously elected to fill the place until the next general election.

The following resolution in relation to the depositing of city funds was introduced by Alderman Brown:

An ordinance relating to place of deposit of funds by city treasurer.

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Colorado Springs

SECTION 1. That the city treasurer shall keep all moneys in his hands belonging to this city on deposit with and in the First National bank of Colorado Springs; provided, however, that the custody of such moneys shall not by any provision hereof be taken from the said treasurer.

SEC. 2. Any violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be cause for the removal of said treasurer from said office by the city council, and upon his failure to comply with any of the provisions hereof, said fact to be ascertained by the city council, the city council shall thereupon declare said office vacant, and proceed to the appointment of his successor, who shall hold his office for the remainder of the unexpired term of such officer so removed.

Alderman Walker seconded this resolution but at the same time opposed its passage. He thought it a matter that should be left entirely to the decision of the incoming council. By its adoption he thought that the sectional feeling which now existed would be increased and for this reason he opposed it.

In response to a question asked by Alderman Wilson the city attorney, Mr. Campbell, stated that in his opinion the city council had authority to designate by ordinance the bank in which the city funds should be deposited. Both Aldermen Wilson and Brown supported the resolution simply from the fact that the First National bank had done more to advance the city credit than all the other institutions in the city combined. It has frequently, said Mr. Brown, cashed our warrants over its counter when others would refuse to extend the same privilege. Under the circumstances the city council is under obligations to the First National bank for favors granted. The motion was put to a vote and lost by the following vote: Ayes, Giddings, Wilson, Brown and Wheeler; nays, Johnson, Walker and Himebaugh.

A request of James Phillips for the adoption of a certain addition to the city of Colorado Springs was received, and on the recommendation of Alderman Wilson, who had examined the plat, it was adopted. A similar request from W. R. Wheeler was refused and the plat was ordered held for further information.

Alderman Walker thought that some action ought to be taken which would hurry up the issuance of the bonds for the new city hall. Alderman Brown opposed any such action on the ground that it would be discourtesy toward the new council.

City Clerk McGovney presented the following bids which were allowed:

W. B. Hammond	$ 09 00
Bumstead & Gibbs	1 75
Election Expenses	162 50
Republic Printing Co	1 00
John Potter	375 00
G. S. Barnes	19 20
Gas Bill	2 50
A. Segendorf	4 80

Mr. Walker said that he understood that there had been a request on the part of some of the citizens that the city warrants be published in full. Alderman Wilson said that in view of the rumors of misappropriations which had gained circulation throughout the city, he would urgently support a motion to that effect. He had talked with the manager of the GAZETTE Publishing company, with which paper the council had a contract for printing, and had ascertained that the cost would not be great and suggested that it be published. The motion was unanimously carried.

Alderman Brown arose and stated that it had come to the ears of the council that Alderman Walker had received hush money from certain druggist, who wished to evade prosecution on the liquor question and he would ask Mr. Walker what he had to say in regard to the matter. Mr. Walker said that he expected the question would be brought up and he had prepared an outline of defense. He stated that he had good reason to believe that the reports to that effect had emanated from a certain gentleman, but that gentleman denied the assertions in the following manner:

To whom it may concern:

I understand that Charles Walker has reason to believe that I have been reporting that he has been taking money from some druggists in this city, as much as fifty or seventy-five dollars at a time, with the understanding that such druggist was not to be prosecuted for violating the city ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors. I hereby wish it distinctly understood that I have never made such charge either directly or indirectly against the said Walker, and am surprised to learn that such an assertion has been imputed to me.

J. P. RALSTON.

Colorado Springs, April 10, 1882.

After the reading of the affidavit above published Alderman Walker submitted Alderman Johnson to an examination in regard to a little caucus which had been held in Dr. Coombs' office at which he was present. In response to questions asked Mr. Johnson acknowledged that he had heard Mr. Ralston at that meeting across the mayor and certain members of the council of accepting bribes from certain druggists, and afterwards upon being asked who the aldermen implicated were he mentioned the name of Charles Walker. Afterwards Mr. Walker asked Dr. Coombs who was also present at the meeting above referred to, whether he had overheard any such remarks. The doctor in reply said that he had been in and out of the room but did not remember of hearing anything of the kind. Mayor France when he learned that the same charge had been made against him as well as Alderman Walker, became somewhat indignant and said that if occasion demanded he would call on both Messrs. Coombs and Johnson as witnesses to the assertions made by Mr. Ralston. Alderman Walker took his seat with the remark that if he was given to the use of profane language he might be inclined to swear.

Alderman Brown introduced a motion showing that in the sense of the council the charges against Mr. Walker were entirely false and without foundation, which was unanimously adopted. A similar motion declaring that Mayor France had served the board faithfully, honestly, and to the best of his ability and had the utmost confidence of all the members, was also adopted. The council then adjourned to meet again on next Monday night at which time the newly elected members will qualify.

The district court convened in this city yesterday morning, with Judge Helm on the bench. Most of the day was devoted to the argument of motions and the arrangement of the docket for active work.

Superstition in India

London News, March 18th

The magistrate of North Arcot has addressed a very strong appeal to the government of Madras in favor of prohibiting the ancient religious rite of "passing through the fire," in consequence of the number of deaths which have been caused by its observance. He states that notwithstanding the progress of education, and the diffusion of enlightenment, the practice is still in vogue. The governor of Madras, however, does not consider the question as one in which the interference of the government would have a good result. Mr Grant Duff points out that the practice complained of is somewhat similar to that of leaping through the fires of St. John, which existed in our own days in Bohemia, and which it took centuries of civilization to eradicate.

As the one whom Governor Pitkin will appoint should leave immediately for Washington, about a dozen statesmen are now packing up

The Denver Tribune thinks that Henry Ward should be gratefully remembered by Senator Teller We heartily endorse this Mr Ward has done more work for Senator Teller than any other editor in the state

The old council had its last meeting last night Its financial statement showed that the general expenses for the past year were $1,000 less than for the year before This is the best sort of a vindication of the administration of the city for the past year that could be given

The resolution of the council endorsing Mayor France was timely and deserved Few men have deserved better of the city for their official services, and few have received so little appreciation But Mayor France has made a record which will bear examination and of which he may well be proud

The effort to secure the recall of Minister Lowell from England should be discouraged He is the most creditable representative since Charles Francis Adams and it would be an outrage to recall him to make room for some broken down politician At present the movement is being engineered by some Irish demagogues in New York who are doing their best to embroil this country into difficulty with Great Britain

A western senator gives the following impression of Arthur's administration which is anything but pleasant "I do not know "what his plans are. He does not seem able "to rise above the New York custom house "To be sure he allows members of congress to "direct the nominations for local offices but "beyond that all his nominations are traceable to three United States senators Don Cameron Logan and Jones of Nevada control everything No one else is consulted, and nominations are all made from one small faction There is no breadth to them "and I am afraid they [illegible] good to the party

In the council proceedings last night a paper was read from Mr J P Ralstin denying that he had ever said that Mr Walker had been bribed by the druggists The charge was quite frequently made before the election not only concerning Mr Walker but Mayor France also Mr France promptly instructed the city attorney to see any party who reported the story and ask him to swear to it and commence legal proceedings against him (Mayor France) for bribing or misappropriation of city funds. But no one could be found to make the charge openly It was a cowardly attack on Mayor France's character for political purposes which its circulators had not the manliness to father Alderman Walker also made a similar demand He heard that at a private caucus held just before the election Mr Ralstin charged that he (Mr Walker) was one of the parties who received bribe Mr Walker immediately went to him and obtained the denial which is published in the council proceedings These charges were made maliciously without any proof whatever and were the most despicable kind of warfare. Mr Ralstin is a man of honor and denies emphatically in his statement that he ever made such charges against Mr Walker This denial should end the matter A charge for which no one will be responsible is not worthy of notice and ought to lower its circulators in the eyes of honest men

The appointment of Senator Teller's successor will not be made until to-day The Denver papers yesterday gave Mr Routt a strong endorsement and this pointed to his appointment. This we think improbable unless Governor Pitkin has changed his opinion in regard to the section from which he will select Senator Teller's successor It was announced early that the appointment would be made from the south This seemed just and appropriate and was considered final Governor Pitkin had received distinguished political honors at the hands of the south and should show his gratitude when occasion offered The opportunity is now given The south has not had a representative in either branch of the national legislature since Colorado became a state It has striven at every election for a senator but in vain Justice demands that she should have one representative and Governor Pitkin has the chance to do this justice. Before this the south has been weak because it had many candidates and its votes were scattered But the fact that there are many candidates makes no difference now, because the senator is made by appointment and not election If Governor Pitkin selects a good representative man from the south there will be no hostile criticism whatever For these reasons we think that the expectations founded on the articles in yesterday's Denver dailies, that Governor Routt would be appointed, are doomed to disappointment. Any such action would injure Governor Pitkin in the south because it would be thought his action was dictated by personal interest.

The Republic, in answer to what we said about pooling makes the grave mistake of stating that the discrimination against this city is due to the Denver & Rio Grande It closes by saying "Besides, if the Rio Grande can afford to haul for nothing from Pueblo to Denver, a distance of one hundred and twenty miles, as a matter of course it can afford to haul for nothing from Pueblo to Colorado Springs—forty-two miles Now while the Denver & Rio Grande does haul freight from Pueblo to Denver at the Pueblo rate which is less than ours, it does not do it for nothing The situation is simply this The rate for freight to Denver is fixed by the shortest line, the Kansas Pacific If the A T & S F wish to do any of the Denver business, it must do it at the rate of the Kansas Pacific It don't make any difference that its haul is over a hundred miles farther It can't get more for this The same is true of Pueblo The A, T & S F is the short line and determines the freight rate If the Kansas Pacific wishes to do any Pueblo business it must do it at the A, T & S F rate, though it hauls freight 120 miles further As a result the A T & S F must receive as much less for Denver freight as it receives for Pueblo freight as will pay the Denver and Rio Grande for hauling 120 miles Likewise the Kansas Pacific must receive as much less for hauling Pueblo freight as it receives for handling Denver freight, as will pay the Denver and Rio Grande for its 120 miles haul But the through lines won't do the same for Colorado Springs, which they claim should not have the same advantages, being without a through line They say they will not haul freight for this city into Denver or Pueblo for less than they will for a Denver or Pueblo merchant This requires we should pay the local rate in addition Whenever the Denver and Rio Grande has had control as in shipping from here to points on its line it has always given us the the same rate Denver and Pueblo have had It is very unfair to charge this discrimination on a road that has given us the same rates to Leadville that Canon City has

The Flight of the Celts before the Saxons

The Making of England—Green

The hurry of their flight may be gathered from the relics their cave-life has left behind it There was clearly little time to do more than to drive off the cattle, the swine, the goats, whose bones lie scattered round the hearth fire at the mouth of the cave, where they served the wretched fugitives for food The women must have buckled hastily their brooches of bronze or parti colored enamel, the peculiar workmanship of Celtic Britain, and scratched up a few household implements as they hurried away. The men, no doubt girded on as hastily the swords whose dainty sword hilts of ivory and bronze still remain to tell the tale of their doom, and hiding in their breast what money the house contained, from coins of Trajan to the wretched minims that told of the empire's decay, mounted their horses to protect their flight At nightfall all were crouching beneath the dripping roof of the cave or round the fire that was blazing at its mouth, and a long suffering began in which the fugitives lost year by year the memory of the civilization from which they came A few charred bones show how hunger drove them to slay their horses for food, reddened pebbles mark the hour when the new vessels they wrought were too weak to stand the fire, and their meal was cooked by dropping heated stones into the pot. A time seems to have come when their very spindles were exhausted, and the women who wove in that dark retreat made spindle whorls as they could from the bones that lay about them.

Famous Pictures Ruined

Vienna Correspondence London Globe

A strange discovery has been made in the Burg There is a certain lofty gallery leading from the chambers of the crown prince to the chapel, and the walls of this passage are lined with historical pictures of immense value Still it is neither very well lighted nor much used, and the pictures, precious as they are, have only been placed there because of their great size Workmen have lately been employed in repairing the telegraphic communication between the different parts of the vast building and in the course of their labor a skylight looking on to this corridor has been opened whereby prying sightseers have been able to stream up in the dark canvases To the horror of the captain of the palace, Herr Kurelony, who is the responsible personage the eyes of all the figures of these pictures have been found to be cut out so that staring holes are left The perpetrator of this piece of vandalism is as unknown as the motive which induced the act Perhaps it was done out of mere reckless mischief, but it might also perhaps be the work of some "Peeping Tom," who wished to spy what was transpiring within imperial walls The mischief was evidently done some time ago

How the Cross of the Legion is Obtained

St James's Gazette, March 31

In the course of a trial before one of the Paris tribunals an incident has just occurred which reminds one of certain passages in Alphonse Daudet's "Numa Roumestan" That hero or rather that leading character was it may be remembered minister of fine arts, a position which he slightly abused in the interest of a young lady who without adequate talents wished to obtain an engagement at the Paris opera house Two brothers named Melingue students of art, and children of the famous Melingue of the Porte St Martin Theatre, were accused of having ill treated a young lady from whom they had obtained some seventy thousand francs and when she visited them in order to ascertain their intentions as to repayment they received her in the most inhospitable manner insulting her and pouring pails of water down her back Among other acts of kindness which she performed for the benefit of the Melingue brothers she had she affirmed obtained for one of them the Cross of the Legion of Honor and when this statement was received with laughter her counsel produced a letter dated Ministry of Fine Arts and beginning with the word Ma chere amie The judge however without allowing another syllable to be read declared with great presence of mind that the letter was a private one and that it had nothing whatever to do with the case The young lady who had so much influence with the Minister of Fine Arts and so little with the students of her acquaintance gained her suit the Melingue brothers being each sentenced to pay a fine of 50 francs and damages to the amount of 1 000 francs

Abusing a Home Ruler

Pall Mall Gazette March 16

The following is a copy of a letter addressed the other day to Mr Healy Sir Charles Domville saw the other day that Mr Healy or some other of the wretched people who represented the dregs of Ireland, complained that they (their party) were not asked to any consultation by any party on any subject and Sir Charles felt astonished (although he knows Ireland well) at the impudence of the observation Sir Charles' surprise is that anybody will sit near these men or at least to the windward of them Shortly after the reform bill the representation of Ireland became degraded Sir Charles remembers that a tailor sat for Kildare but a respectable tailor would not sit among the people now sent from Ireland clerks to pawnbrokers, pig butchers &c. but there was a reaction, and there will be again Cads must be bad members as they cannot get places for the constituents Sir Charles supposes although it is difficult to guess what such dishonest men as Mr Gladstone may do underhand—Even in the house of commons of this day men who speak bad English and never tell the truth will not be listened to Everybody knows they represent no taxpaying or respectable class, and that they are themselves the dregs of the population"

According to Dod's ell Sir Charles Domville is an Irish landlord magistrate in three counties deputy lieutenant ex high sheriff of Dublin county & Debrett adds "This family has a well authenticated and unbroken line of descent from the time of the Norman conquest"

Mines Influencing Towns

Macmillan's Magazine

In more recent times the development of the mining industries of the country has powerfully affected both the growth and decay of towns Comparing in this respect the map of to-day with those of 150 or 200 years ago we cannot but be struck with the remarkable changes that have taken place in the interval Some places which were then of but minor importance have now advanced to the first rank, while others that were among the chief towns of the realm have either hardly advanced at all or have positively declined If now we turn to a geological map we find that in almost all cases the growth has taken place within or near to some important mineral field while the decadence occurs in tracts where there are no workable minerals Look for example, at the prodigious increase in such towns as Glasgow, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle Birmingham and Middlesborough Each of these owes its advance in population and wealth to its position in the midst of, or close to fields of coal and iron Contrast, on the other hand the sleepy, quiet, unprogressive content, and even sometimes unmistakable decay, of not a few county towns in our agricultural districts Closely connected with this subject is the remarkable transference of population which for the last generation or two has been in such rapid progress among us The large manufacturing towns are increasing at the expense of the rural districts The general distribution of the population is changing, and the change is obviously underlaid by a geological cause People are drawn to the districts where they can obtain most employment and best pay, and these districts are necessarily those where coal and iron can be obtained, without which no branch of our manufacturing industry could exist

New Bedford Massachusetts, is a city of about thirty thousand inhabitants (according to the last census) and is noted chiefly for prohibition whale oil, and the excellence of its public schools The moral tone of the city may be approximately inferred from the following item clipped from the Republican Standard of March 30 "The three boys who were arrested in New Bedford last week for stealing a ride were sent to the reform school, at Westborough, Monday It would not be surprising if some of the youngsters should be arrested for 'stealing a march,' or for 'stealing awhile away from every cumbering care'"
